AIKEN STEEPLECHASE ASSOCIATION

The Aiken Steeplechase Association (ASA) is a non-profit, 501c3 organization that presently hosts Spring and Fall races sanctioned by the National Steeplechase Association. The ASA, established in 1930, is comprised of a volunteer Board of Directors as well as annual members. Membership is open to the public. With the help of the Aiken Sertoma Club and many member volunteers, the continued success of the Steeplechase meets have allowed the ASA to contribute its profits to local charities including:

- Helping Hands, Inc.
- Aiken Rescue Squad
- The Hitchcock Woods Foundation
- Aiken SPCA
- Friends of the Animal Shelter
- The Cumbee Center
- Public Education Partners,
- CanHope
- National Steeplechase Injured Jockey's Fund
- ACTS (Area Churches Together Serving)
- The Aiken Thoroughbred Hall of Fame
- And More!

YOUR CONTRIBUTION

Membership dues help the Aiken Steeplechase Association perpetuate the sport of steeplechasing in Aiken, not only through your monetary contribution, but through your passion for this event.

Our Expenses Include:

- Steeplechase Purse Money - $180,000 per year
- Tent and Equipment Rentals
- Security & Emergency Services
- Course Maintenance
- Jumps and Fencing
- Veterinarians
- Announcers
- General Administrative
- Printing
- Trophies
- Catering

With the efforts of many, your contributions, and plain hard work by dedicated staff and volunteers, we are able to make the races work and also give back to the community.

HISTORY

Hitchcock Woods was the site of the first Aiken Steeplechase meet held in 1930, and over one thousand people came to watch. In 1967, after a twenty five year inactive period due to war and civic developments, the Aiken Steeplechase was revived. With the efforts of great horsemen such as Charlie Bird, G.H. Bostwick, Ford Conger, Paul Mellon, MacKenzie Miller and Willard Thompson, the event grew into the success it is today.
